

Salinas School of Dance
announces Summer Dance Camp

Degas and his Ballerinas

July 30—August 3, 2012

8:00—2:00 p.m. daily, M-F

1:00 p.m. Friday—Show

(1 hour longer each day than in previous years)

Edgar Degas is famous, in part, for his beautiful paintings and sketches of ballet dancers. This camp program will teach children about his work and will allow them to explore painting on a daily basis. Dancing, story telling, reading and imagination will fill this week.

A one week dance and arts camp for girls ages 5-12 years

Daily classes in ballet, tap and jazz. Daily arts/crafts

Tuition includes all crafts, dance classes, photos and a show on Friday. This year's camp will teach young students about the paintings of the famous artist, Degas. Art projects will include several painting experiences and new crafts and arts projects will fill the week.

Daily dance classes, stories, music, painting and crafts make this camp fun and exciting for our young dancers.

$295 per student for the week. $100 deposit holds your spot and will be credited toward the tuition for this camp.

This promises to be a special camp week!

Registration Form—Enrollment Limited—Full Payment due before June 1, 2012

THERE ARE NO REFUNDS OR MAKE UP CLASSES AVAILABLE. PLEASE ENCLOSE FULL FEE OR THE NON-REFUNDABLE DEPOSIT OF $100 (credited to the camp fee.)

Name or Degas' Ballerina: _____ Age: _____

Address: _____ Zip _____

Email: _____

Phone: _____ Cell: _____

www.salinasdance.com 424-4655 40 W. Gabilan St., Salinas, CA 93901